Simulated data

Collected Data of Survey Responses

The 15 survey responses summarised in this document were simulated for coursework. They were not collected from real respondents.

This material shows the elicitation process used to derive the requirements in the Inclusive Employment Platform requirements engineering report. It does not represent the verified views of real stakeholders.

Collected Data of Survey Responses

Accessible Job Search Platform Requirements Survey

Survey Overview

Item	Details
Survey purpose	Identify and prioritise accessibility, privacy, fairness, application, safety and employment needs
Target participants	Job seekers, employers and other relevant stakeholders
Survey method	Online questionnaire
Number of responses	15

Survey Questionnaire

Q1. Which stakeholder group best describes you?
Question type: Multiple choice
Options:

- Person with a physical disability
- Person with a visual or hearing disability
- Person with a cognitive or learning disability
- Person with a psychosocial/mental health condition
- Employer / HR representative
- Disability employment support worker / job coach
- Caregiver / family member / trusted supporter
- Other

Q2. What is your main interaction with employment platforms?
Type: Multiple choice

- Searching for jobs
- Applying for jobs
- Recruiting employees
- Supporting someone searching for employment
- Providing employment guidance
- Other

Section 2 — Current Problems

Q3. What are the biggest difficulties when searching or applying for jobs?
Type: Checkboxes
Allow respondents to select multiple.

- Inaccessible websites or applications
- Lack of workplace accessibility information

- Complicated application forms
- Lack of suitable communication options
- Difficulty finding suitable jobs
- Concerns about discrimination
- Concerns about privacy
- Difficulty requesting workplace accommodations
- Too many steps in the application process
- Lack of employer information
- Other

Q4. How important is workplace accessibility information when deciding whether to apply for a job?
Type: Linear scale
1 – Not important
5 – Extremely important

Q5. Which workplace accessibility information would you want to see?
Type: Checkboxes
- Wheelchair accessibility
- Accessible toilets
- Lifts / elevators
- Accessible parking
- Public transport accessibility
- Remote-work availability
- Flexible working arrangements
- Assistive technology provided
- Quiet/private workspaces
- Other

Section 3 — Accessibility Requirements

Q6. Which accessibility features would be most important to you?
Type: Checkboxes
- Screen-reader compatibility
- Keyboard-only navigation
- Captions for videos
- Text transcripts
- Alternative text for images
- Adjustable text size
- High-contrast interface
- Plain-language descriptions
- Simple navigation
- Voice input
- Save-and-continue functionality
- Other

Q7. How important is it to be able to save an incomplete job application and continue later?
Type: Linear scale
1 – Not important
5 – Extremely important

Q8. Which application features would make applying for jobs easier?
Type: Checkboxes
- Shorter application forms
- Step-by-step application process
- Progress indicator
- Save draft

- Plain-language instructions
- Ability to upload an existing résumé
- Flexible interview options
- Ability to request accommodations
- Human assistance
- Other

Section 4 — Privacy and Disability Disclosure

Q9. Should users be required to disclose their disability when creating an account?
Type: Multiple choice
- Yes
- No
- Only if they choose to
- Unsure

Q10. What information should an employer be able to see during the initial application stage?
Type: Checkboxes
- Skills
- Qualifications
- Work experience
- Education
- Preferred working arrangement
- Accommodation requirements
- Type of disability
- Medical information
- Personal photograph
- None of the above

Q11. Would you prefer to request an accommodation without disclosing your specific disability?
Type: Multiple choice
- Yes
- No
- Unsure

Section 5 — Job Matching

Q12. What factors should the platform use when recommending jobs?
Type: Checkboxes
- Skills
- Qualifications
- Work experience
- Job interests
- Location
- Salary
- Working hours
- Workplace accessibility
- Remote/hybrid availability
- Disability type
- Accommodation requirements

Q13. Should disability information be used to automatically exclude someone from a job recommendation?
Type: Multiple choice
- Yes
- No
- Only when the user specifically requests it

- Unsure

Q14. How important is it for the platform to explain why a particular job was recommended?
Type: Linear scale
1 – Not important
5 – Extremely important

Section 6 — Interviews and Support

Q15. Which interview methods should applicants be able to choose from?
Type: Checkboxes
- In-person
- Video call
- Telephone
- Text-based interview
- Email-based communication
- Other

Q16. Should users be able to give a job coach, caregiver or trusted supporter access to their application?
Type: Multiple choice
- Yes, with the user's permission
- Yes, automatically
- No
- Unsure

Q17. What controls should users have over supporter access?
Type: Checkboxes
- Give access temporarily
- Choose exactly what information they can see
- Allow them to edit the résumé
- Require approval before submitting an application
- View the supporter's activity
- Remove access at any time
- No supporter access should be allowed

Section 7 — Safety and Fairness

Q18. What problems should users be able to report?
Type: Checkboxes
- Discriminatory job advertisements
- Fake employers
- Employment scams
- Incorrect accessibility information
- Harassment
- Unfair recruitment practices
- Inappropriate employer behaviour
- Other

Q19. How important is employer verification?
Type: Linear scale
1 – Not important
5 – Extremely important

Q20. Should employers be allowed to display an "Inclusive Employer" badge?
Type: Multiple choice
- Yes, if they meet verified criteria

- Yes, if they self-declare
- No
- Unsure.

Survey Response Data

Respondent Background:

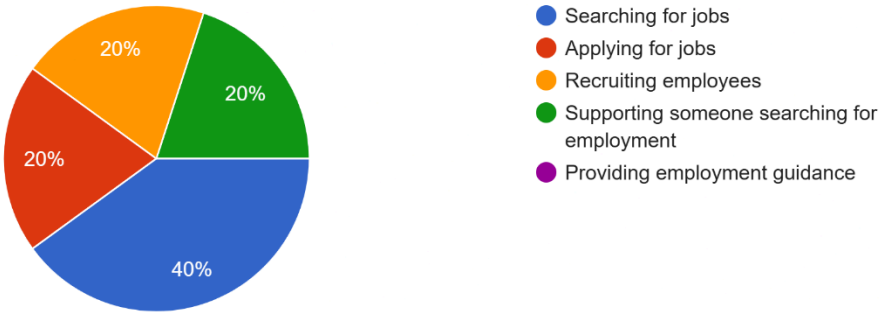

Which stakeholder group best describes you?

15 responses

What is your main interaction with employment platforms?

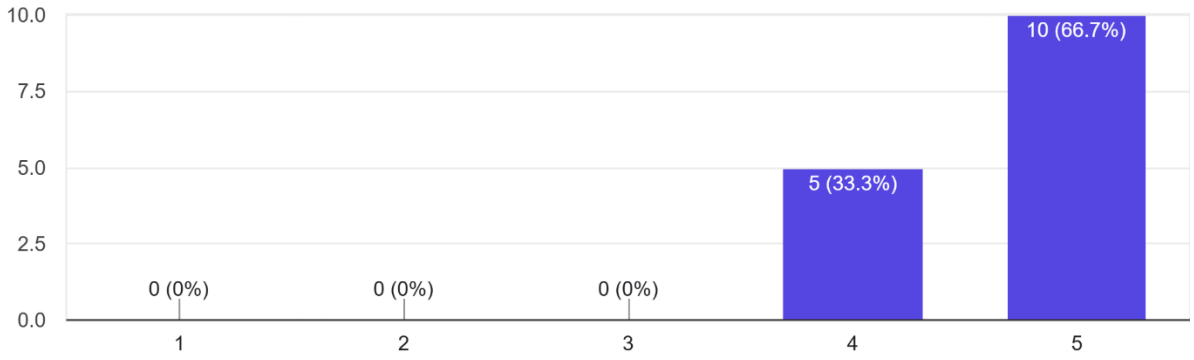

15 responses

Current Problems:

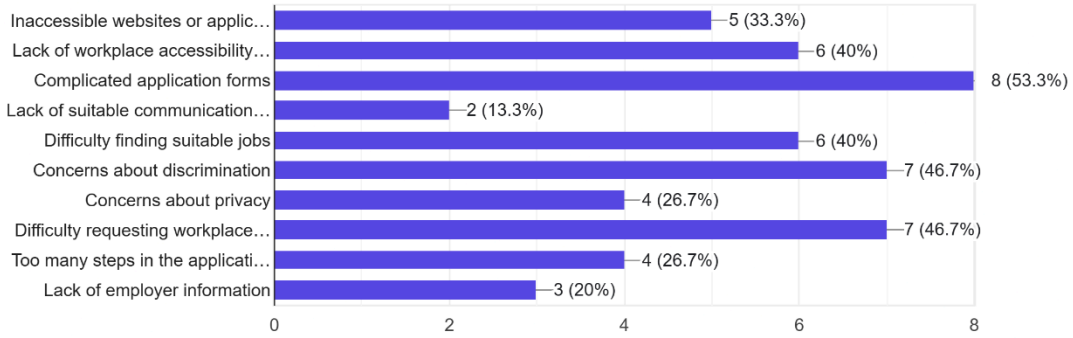

How important is workplace accessibility information when deciding whether to apply for a job?

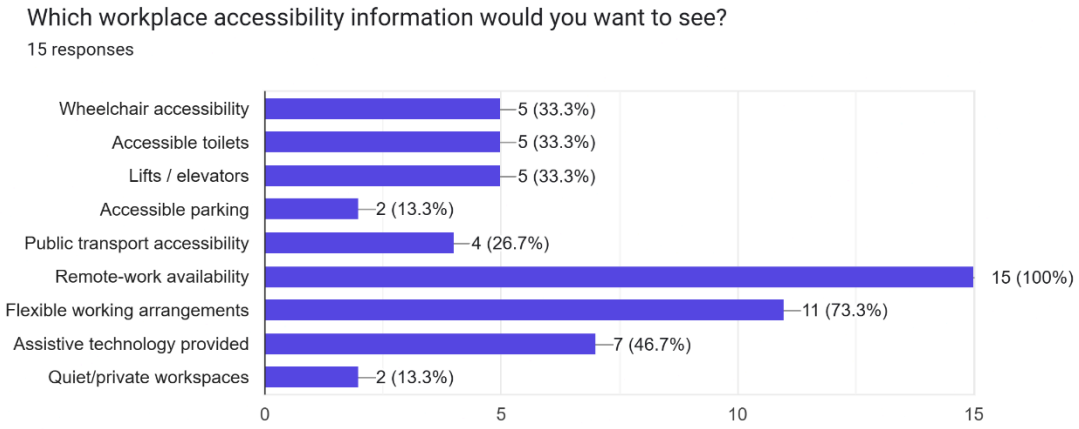

15 responses

What are the biggest difficulties when searching or applying for jobs?

15 responses

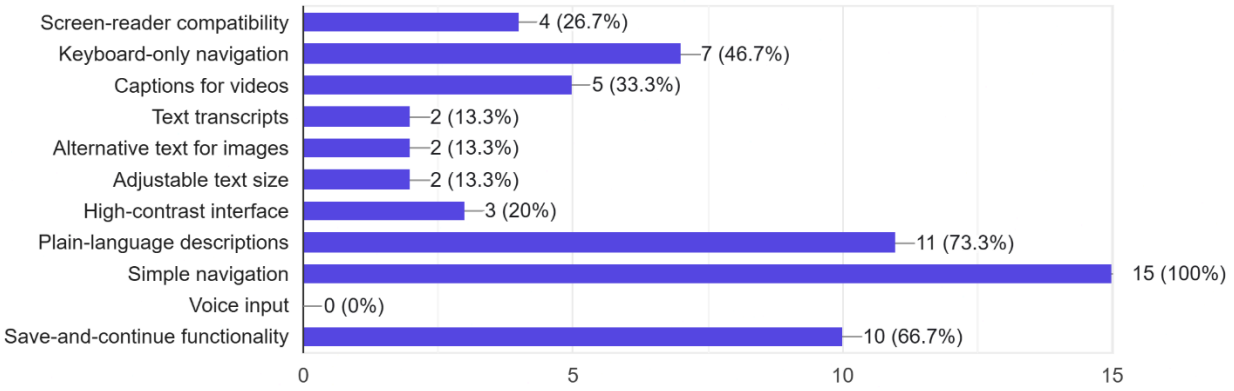

Accessibility Requirements:

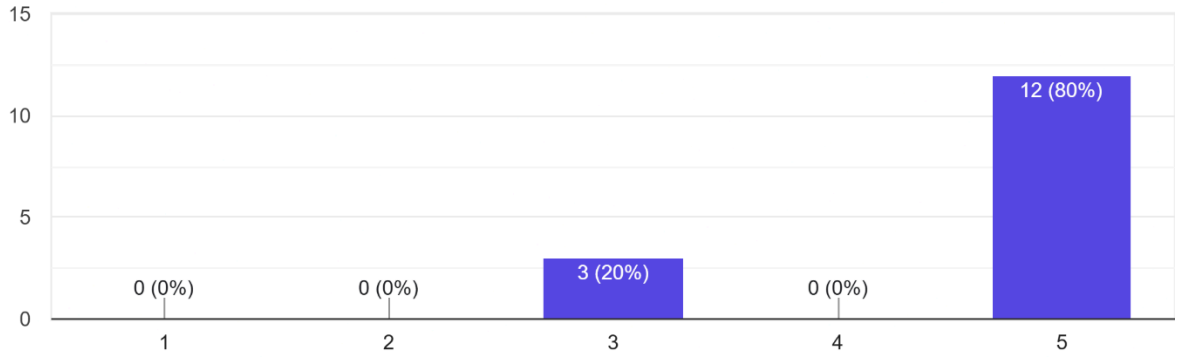

Which accessibility features would be most important to you?

15 responses

How important is it to be able to save an incomplete job application and continue later?

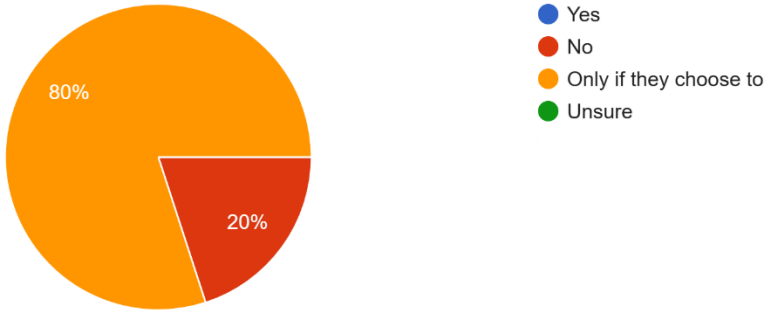

15 responses

Privacy and Disability Disclosure:

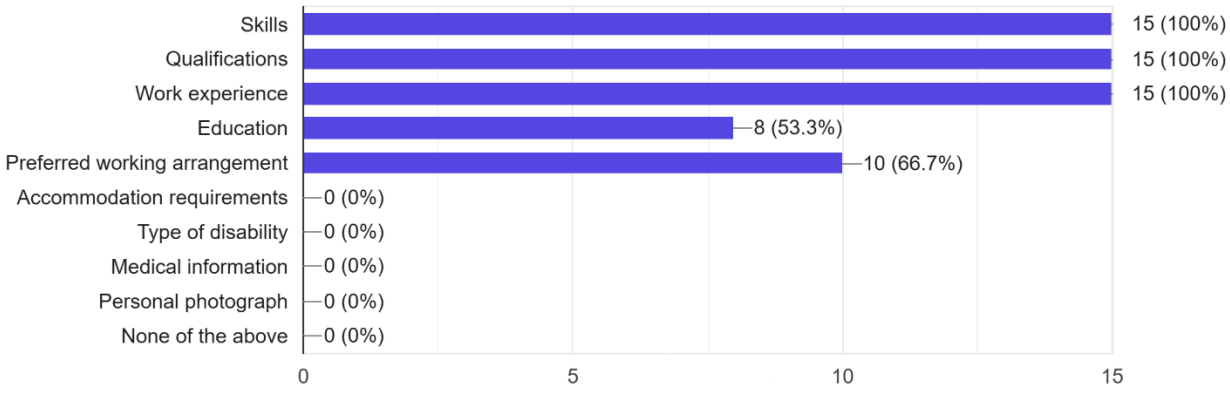

Should users be required to disclose their disability when creating an account?

15 responses

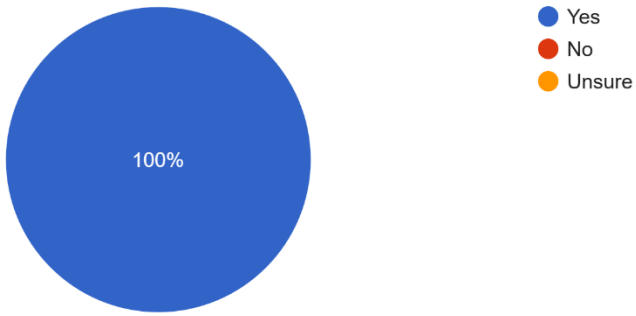

What information should an employer be able to see during the initial application stage?

15 responses

Would you prefer to request an accommodation without disclosing your specific disability?

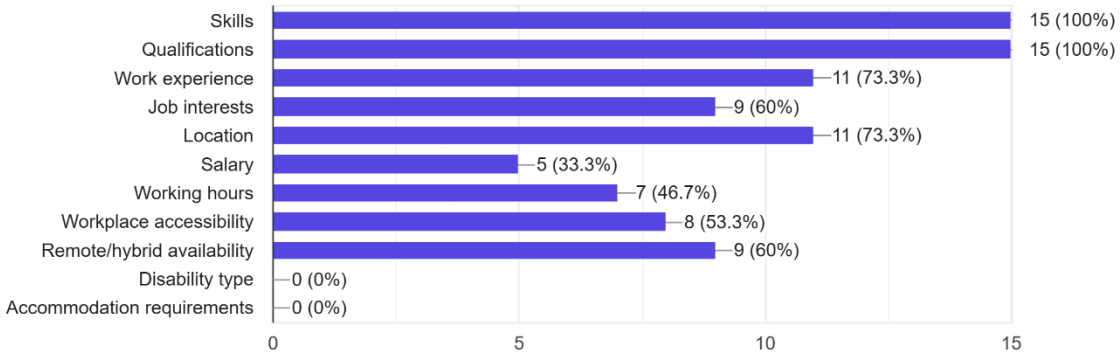

15 responses

Job Matching:

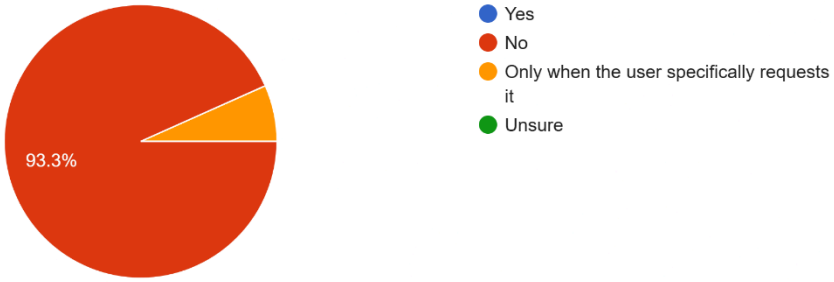

What factors should the platform use when recommending jobs?

15 responses

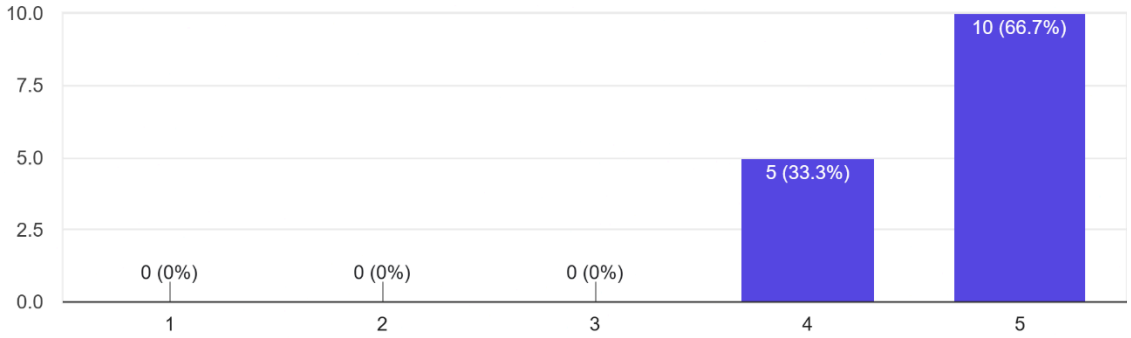

Should disability information be used to automatically exclude someone from a job recommendation?

15 responses

How important is it for the platform to explain why a particular job was recommended?

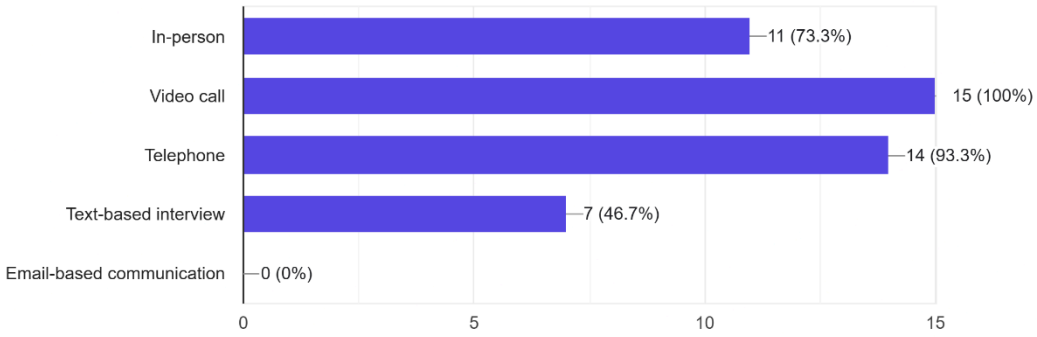

15 responses

Interviews and Support:

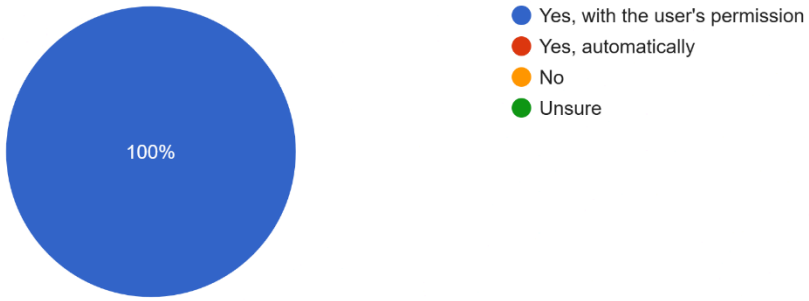

Which interview methods should applicants be able to choose from?

15 responses

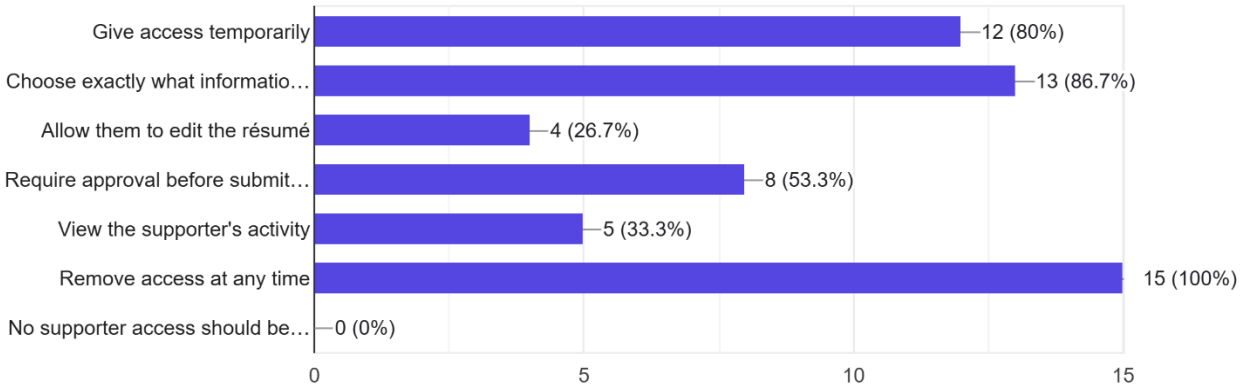

Should users be able to give a job coach, caregiver or trusted supporter access to their application?

15 responses

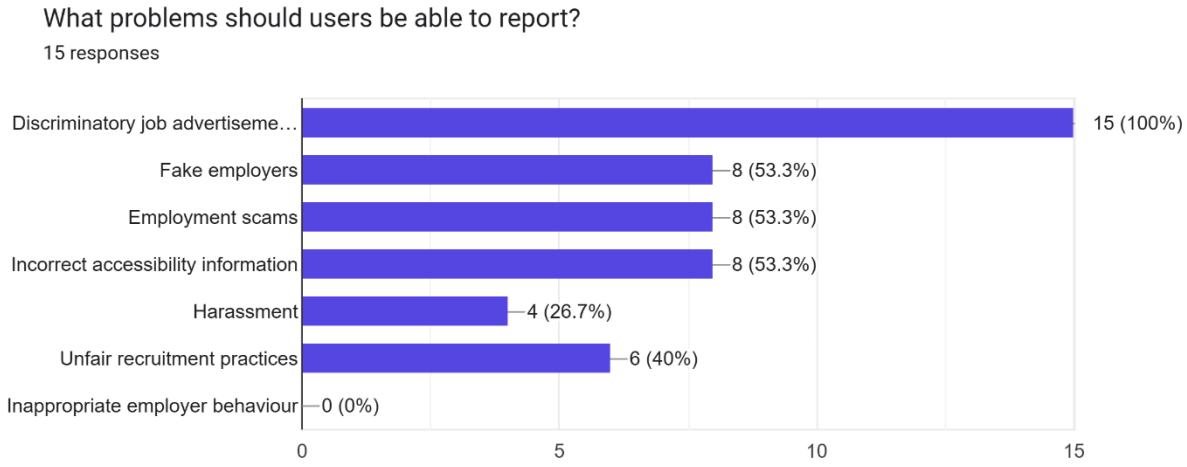

What controls should users have over supporter access?

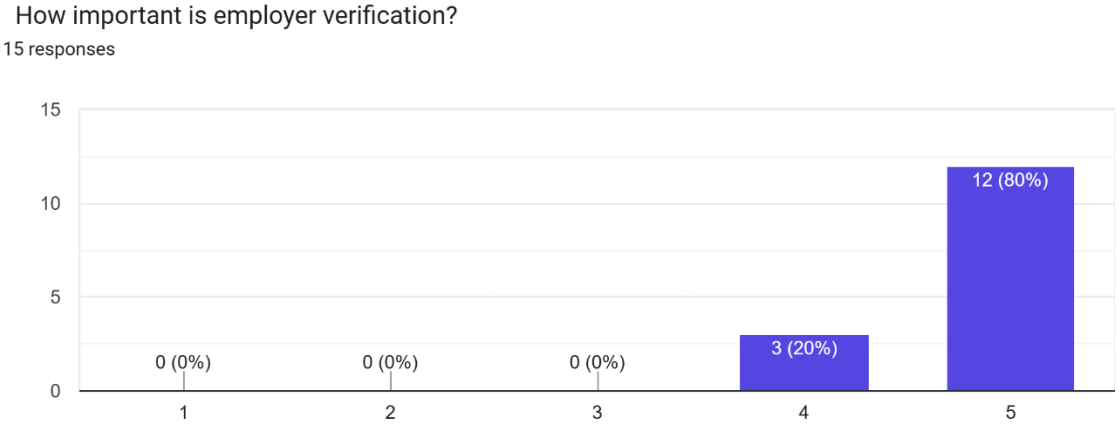

15 responses

Safety and Fairness:

s:

Should employers be allowed to display an “Inclusive Employer” badge?

15 responses

